THERE IS excitement in Japan and foolish talk because this country emphatically affirms its determination to keep out Asiatic immigration.

The Japanese newspaper Asahi warns the United States that the entire Japanese nation stands back of Japan's protest.

YORROZU bluntly suggests that Japan ought to fight the United States at once; "a clash between races sooner or later is inevitable. America apparently wants it now, and all races opposed to the Whites should rise up."

JAPAN OUGHT to be satisfied with one earthquake at a time, but to say that to the Japanese might sound flippant, considering their recent misfortune.

THERE WON'T be any war between the United States and Japan just now, but it may come later, and this country should have that in mind and supply the necessary flying machines and submarines.

VERY enlightening is the statement of Yorozezu, that Japan would be willing now to fight the United States over the immigration issue.

If the Japanese are willing to fight to force Asiatic immigration upon the United States, that fact is important.

IN PARIS, the Japanese Ambassador calls on Prime Minister Poincaré to request Poincaré to mediate between the United States and Japan on the immigration question, or at least "refer it to the League of Nations."

DON'T YOU think it fortunate that this country is out of the League of Nations, and reserves the right to manage its own affairs? If we were in that blessed League we should have various European nations preaching to us about our duty. Incidentally, our refusal to acquiesce in their views might furnish a convenient excuse for repudiation of their debts to the United States. We should be grateful that we are out of that mess.

WE SHOULD maintain a sympathetic attitude toward Japan, not paying too much attention to the Jingo newspapers. We do not intend to have Asiatic colonization on our part of this continent, and we think we are able to enforce our intention.

But we can, at least, sympathize with Japan's disappointment. You observe that the Japanese Prime Minister speaks of the Pacific as "our ocean," meaning Japan's ocean.

THAW CALLS TORTURE STORY LIE

Declares He Was Always Kind to Pets; Confident of Proving Sanity as Case Rests

Philadelphia, April 18.—Harry K. Thaw, fighting for freedom from a Pennsylvania asylum, declares the story that he tortured rabbits is a lie.

He insists he was kind to the pets and denies he ever abused them in any way.

Thaw was jubilant over the victory scored by his counsel by suddenly raising his case. He was elated by his escape from the grilling cross-examination he had expected to face at the hands of opposition counsel.

The case has gone over till Monday.

Thaw laughed and chatted with reporters after adjournment was ordered.

"The idea of putting in those half-witted reports about rabbits," he said. "They are lies."

"No, Harry," broke in exchange Professor, his attorney, "don't talk about the case."

"I don't want to," said Thaw, "but I am going to say this: The things they said about me and the rabbits aren't true. I was kind to the rabbits."

Those rabbits stick in his mind, says he. Thaw realizes the effort that rabbit story will have on the jury, he believes.

That was all he would say about the case but he jotted a group of reporters in a general discussion of Continued on Page 3, Col. 2.

DELAYS CASE OF BOY STRUNG UP BY THUMBS
So that the court may see the boy who is alleged to have beaten the case of Mrs. Ruby Williams No. 24 Main street, Charlestown, was continued for a week when she was arraigned today before Judge Sullivan in Charlestown Court.

In default of $2,000 bail the defendant was removed to the Charlestown Jail.

"Billy" McKeen, four-year-old son of Edward McKeen of Dorchester, who, the police allege, was strung up by the thumbs and beaten by the Williams woman, with whom he was placed to board by his father, is rapidly recovering from his injuries at City Hospital.

President is Asked to Pay for Broadcasting Lincoln Day Speech, Lawyer Says

Washington, April 18.—Nathan Burkan, counsel for the Society of Authors, Composers and Publishers, told the Senate patents committee today that "it was understood" an attempt had been made to charge President Coolidge $2,500 for broadcasting his Lincoln's birthday address.

Asked if the President had paid for the address, the witness said he "knew not."

Radio manufacturers, telephone and telegraph companies and local broadcasting agencies are already in a five-cornered fight for mutual benefit.

The committee is considering the bill which would relieve radio broadcasting stations from the payment of copyright fees on music and literary material.

An amendment to the copyright law which would prohibit the use of copyrighted material in a radio broadcast without the consent of the copyright owner is being considered.

RICH MRS. WALLACE LOSES

Mrs. Bradstreet, Who Sued for $250,000, Victor in Bitter Fight

Mrs. Alice F. Wallace, New Hampshire's wealthiest widow, must pay $20,000 for the theft of the affection of Harry S. Bradstreet, Back Bay banker and her "financial director."

After deliberating six hours and twenty-five minutes, a jury in Boston Superior court determined on the amount Mrs. Wallace sued for.

The jury's verdict was a result of a bitter fight between the two women.

Red Sox-Yanks Final Game Called Off; Two Tomorrow

After Bob Quinn of the Red Sox announced at noon today that the final game of the series between the Sox and the Yankees was off, due to the cold weather.

Tomorrow the Red Sox will meet the Philadelphia Athletics at Fenway Park in a four-game series.

Four games are scheduled, one for Monday with the maximum snow starting at 3:30.

With the Boston team having won eight of the ten games played since the Sox left for Philadelphia, the Athletics are expected to have a pretty good working club and should be heard from before the season gets well under way.

Among the officials named by the Sox in connection with the game which he said was stolen from a Yankees man, Representative Frederick Gillett of Massachusetts, member of the House and W. T. Fyfe, a former assistant attorney general.

Committee members argued whether they should be in the amount named in the report, and the committee was divided.

CHILD'S WIFE DIVERGED BY JOSEPH A. RICH, HUB FISH KING

CHARGE FOR DIVORCE SUIT HOME

Hastens to Reno and Starts Suit Immediately After Being Freed From Jail Here

Joseph A. Rich, of Brookline and Boston, one of fourteen members of the $8,000,000 Fish Trust who were sent to jail last year for conspiring to keep up the price of food in wartime, has been granted a divorce at Reno, Nevada.

Rich hurried back to Reno five days after his release from Deer Island on November 1, last.

He had served seven months of a nine months' sentence.

"In the prime of manhood, with more money than he needs or can spend—his wealth is estimated at a million or more—Rich has everything he wanted except children."

"He wanted a son," Mrs. Nina Gordon George Rich said after the first spasm of tears, when word of the divorce was brought to her at their palatial home on No. 16 Condit street, Brookline.

WIFE OVER AWAY.

"He wanted a son, but he would have been delighted with a daughter. Nothing pleased him any more. Automobiles, the sea, music, books, theatre, books, my companionship, luxuries, all meant less than nothing."

It was after her husband had been in the Nevada court as a "perpetual nigger," Mrs. Rich burst into tears and said:

"I suppose I have been cross with him, but he got on my nerves."

Mrs. Rich, although she is past sixty years of age, looks not more than forty-five. Her black hair is only meagerly streaked with gray.

HELED HIM TO RISE.

"He told a story not unlike 'The Governor's Lady,' the story of a woman who throws in her lot with a struggling business man, but her aid, comfort and advice help him to the top of his ladder, and then she is cast aside."

"I had just recently come from New Hampshire," Mrs. Rich said, "when at that time I had scarcely got a footing."

"He helped him in every way possible, sometimes waiting at night upon his books, and he began to forget about me."

"We were married and the money began to come to him so fast that he couldn't count it. For a time we were happy, but always there was in his heart that craving for a little one. I could not be. I was resigned, my husband was angry."

But out there in the Nevada divorce court, Joseph A. Rich, doing nothing whatever to say about children, was busy.

TO STAY IN RENO.

It was Mr. Rich's day of complaint and he blamed Mrs. Rich for almost everything but the divorce itself. He wanted her to stay in Reno, but she refused to do so.

"She was a chronic fault-finder. I got up with her in the morning, and she would find fault with me. I was in Boston that it was necessary."

Mrs. Rich did not contest the divorce suit, according to the Boston American correspondent in Reno, and did not appear.

NO NOTICE, WIFE SAYS.

"I knew nothing about the matter being in court," Mrs. Rich said. "I was in Boston, and our marriage did not take place in September, 1900, but in the month of November, 1901."

Rich, testifying on his own behalf in Reno, told the court that Mrs. Rich once told him that she "thought more of her old horse than she did of me."

"She is just a natural complainer," said Rich. "If I ordered a dinner, she complained, and she complained again if I closed it."

Rich has a terrible temper, and when in anger will beat the piano with his fists. More than once she threatened to throw food in his face.

Mrs. Rich, during these stories in their divorce when they were repeated to her nearly 3000 miles from the courtroom, said she was not at all surprised to find in detail what she feels "more composed."

"It may be necessary," the divorced wife said, "to make my reply through an attorney."

CAPT. DAMON, HUB OF ASSPY, EXCHANGED

Paris, April 18.—Captain Darnaud, the French officer sent to Leipzig for espionage, and being exchanged for three hostages taken in the Ruhr by the French, is regarded as the first of a series of measures whereby the French will release its prisoners taken during the occupation of the Ruhr excepting those guilty of capital crimes.

sports, especially baseball. He talked sports and baseball life was asked:

"What will you do if you are released?"

"Return to Pittsburgh with my mother," was the reply.

"I'm getting old," he added. "I'm fifty-three. Still I like to watch baseball. I like to play it."

"I had told you you play in your time," he was asked.

Thaw smiled again. His hands were impulsively to his head. They were laughing.

"Anywhere they let me. And damn nearly everywhere. I had a good time though."

He talks rationally. In a way he talks rationally. In another way he talks rationally.

VICTORY FOR DEFENSE.

Thaw's going to Pittsburgh, as it is, he is freed, turned down the New York indictment matter. It had been understood that he intended to go to New York to wipe the Gump story off the books forever.

Controlled for the trustees of the estate of William Thaw, who fear Thaw will squander the five million dollars' fortune on his own turn of events.

So sudden and dramatic was the favorable change in the case that the jurors and the hundreds of spectators packed in the court of Common Pleas were left in something like a daze.

The trial came like a flash of thunder from a flawless sky. John M. Patterson, representing Thaw, called him to the witness stand.

SCANS JURYMEN.

Harry smoothed back his hair, rose forward to the stand, took the oath, and sat down.

He was then seemingly at ease, looking straight down the front line of jurors as if trying to impress them.

Patterson asked Thaw's age, which is fifty-three, and how long he had been confined, to which Harry replied seven years, and then continued.

Q—You have asked me to put you on the witness stand so the other side can ask you any question. You may examine me to your condition—is that right? A—I could hardly say yes.

Q—Well, practically? A—If I could say something else—sentence not ended.

Mr. Patterson: "Now, gentleman, examine him."

This proved a bomb shell to the effect of Arthur Gordon Gray for the Thaw estate, William A. Gray for the Nesbitt and their array of allies.

It was an abrupt move, a high play to the jury if ever one was made by a clever lawyer. He had offered his client to the indignation, an indignation in which any question could be asked in direct or indirect manner for this is an inquiry court today. His case was continued to May 7. He is charged with assault with a weapon, Robt. Musick, his alleged companion, is charged with carrying a revolver.

MYSTERY LURKS IN MARRIAGE INTENTIONS

Romance diffused its golden glow today in Cambridge City Hall.

When its first glow had been poured in the names of Andre Auguste Bernard Brouzet, French consul at New York, and Sara Hubbard Gilman, divorcee, native of Cooper, Tex., but now of No. 209 Fifth avenue, New York, lay in the city clerk's hands.

Why the principals in the romance linking old France with an obscure Texas town strayed far from the thrills and surge of Broadway to file their intentions in a city 238 miles away is a mystery, containing but of an enigma.

But no waiver of the city-day law and Brouzet's age as fifty-one and that of his bride-to-be as forty-three. His residence is set down as No. 5 East Fortieth street, New York. He was born in Paris, the son of Adolphe and Jeanne.

Parents of the intended bride are given as Auguste Gordon Brouzet and Eugenia Blackburn Moss Hubbard of Cooper, Tex.

April, 1922—Evelyn files a petition asking the trial to intervene in proceedings to determine Harry Thaw's sanity. She acts in behalf of her thirteen-year-old son, Russell.

Thaw, an anticipatory heir of Thaw's millions. The petition is granted by the court and Evelyn and her former husband are each other for the first time in eight years. She is now thirty-eight.

MINISTER'S HOME IS BOMBED

Buffalo, N. Y., April 18.—Rev. L. E. H. Smith, pastor of the Ontario United Presbyterian Church and of First Methodist Church, escaped by a few minutes a bomb explosion which wrecked his home today.

Rev. Mr. Smith's home was not at home. A series of threatening letters had caused him to temporarily abandon the home for more than a week. They had been living with neighbors.

The pastor returned to his home several days ago and sat on the point of leaving his office when a telephone call warned him that his home had been bombed.

PADEREWSKI'S DOG STILL ON 'DANGER LIST'

Veterinary in All-Night Attendance on Aged, Travel-Worn Pet

Chicago, April 18.—(Radio, government, veterinary science and the Illinois Central Railroad combined to make the last twenty-four hours significant for Yung Lung, fifteen-year-old Pekingese pet dog of Miss L. Paderewski, wife of the former Premier of Poland.

The animal rushed to Chicago from Sioux Falls, telegraphing alarm for the best veterinarians of the Middle West and causing great excitement, while the entire Paderewski menage of nudes, valets, porters and secretaries centered attention on the little dog battling old age, lassitude, too much travel and an acute case of gastritis.

Early today a veterinary, in constant attendance, reported the condition of his patient as "still serious."

WALE'S POSTPONES RETURN TO LONDON

Paris, April 18.—(How are they going to keep him down on Windsor Farm after he's seen Paris?) might be the title of a football song based on the Prince of Wales—rather the Earl of Chester—present visit to the French capital.

After informing the British embassy of his intention to leave for London, the Prince decided to postpone his departure so that he might dine again with his American friends. He planned to resume his dancing in the Montmartre.

Anna Gould's Ex-mate Broke, Wants To Sell His Kingdom

Where is the man who would be king?

Such a kingdom is for sale today—the little country of Sagan, situated between Silesia and Brandenburg, Germany, and embracing one and a half million of land rich in Germanic lore.

If you desire such an heritage, kindly address the Duke
Helle de Talleyrand-Perigord, one-time happily married husband of Countess de Castellane.

There is one, say, two propositions I make, however," the Duke says. "First, I must retain my title of Serene Highness of Sagan. The other is that the price shall be acceptable to my minister of finance."

When the present Duke married Anna Gould, divorced wife of Count de Castellane, he was a millionaire.

WOMAN FOUND STRANGLED AND TIED TO BED

Man Who Posed as Brother is Among Three Held Following Chicago Murder

Chicago, April 18.—Three men are held in connection with the killing of Mrs. Beulah Goodman, twenty-six, restaurant waitress, found tied to a bed in her flat, with an electric hand cord and strangled with a sheet.

They are Alexander Gordon, who the police say posed as her brother, and formerly was her partner in a restaurant; Abraham Weiss and Harry Cohen, his friends.

No information looking to the solution of the mystery was obtained from them after an all-night questioning.

Thesman was found when police broke into the flat after her employer reported she had not been at work for some time. Neighbors saw electric disturbances in the flat Wednesday night.

STARTS SEARCH FOR VESSEL IN DISTRESS

Norfolk, Va., April 18.—The Coast Guard cutter Massachusett was ordered today to search for the four-masted schooner Orleans, in distress with a crew of nine men, somewhere off Cape Hatteras.

ACTRESS RENOUNCES $3500 CONTRACT

ELSIE JANIS

SPECIAL MUSIC TODAY IN MANY CHURCHES

Good Friday was observed today with great ceremony in Catholic and Episcopal churches of Boston.

Special musical services of the churches, commencing the three hours of the Passion of Christ, was held in the Cathedral of the Holy Cross and the Church of the Immaculate Conception.

At St. Paul's Cathedral the three-hour service was conducted by Bishop Lawrence and divided into twenty-minute periods, beginning and ending with a hymn, during which it was not possible to enter or leave the Cathedral.

ELSIE JANIS ON STRIKE; QUILTS THEATRE

New York, April 18.—Elsie Janis, headline this week at Keith's Palace Theatre, renounced a $3,500 a week contract by walking out of the theatre with the announcement to the management that she would not return.

The reason for the walkout, it was explained later, was that Miss Janis refused to consent to sharing the star's house with James Barton, one of the most popular comedians on Broadway.

Miss Janis, according to the management of the theatre, insisted that a housekeeper leaving her name only be placed in front of the theatre. This management refused.

A report that Barton had refused to go on unless his name be connected with that of Miss Janis was disputed by the management.

"After all," we're repeating, the theatre, Miss Janis is not. She has always had extreme sympathy for the Keith Theatre. It is true that she was the headline, but we are not using banners at all this week as we usually do, because religious services are held in the theatre during the morning, and we decided to have as little display as possible for that reason."

32 IN DANGER IN PORTLAND FLAMES

Portland, April 18.—Thirty-two persons were driven from their beds by flames ranging in age from 2 to 15 years were carried to safety. A crippled woman was removed from her second floor apartment and our man was carried to hospital from a fall down 20 feet above the ground today during a semi-alarm fire at 40 Washington avenue.

The fire started apparently from overflows of oil in the furnace and spread rapidly through the apartment house. The damage was estimated at $5,000.

GOVERNMENT TO RUN MUSCLE SHOALS

Washington, April 18.—(U.S. Press.) Operation as a solution to the Muscle Shoals question was urged on the Senate Agriculture Committee today by H. R. French, national lecturer for the Non-Partisan League.

French said the Ford bill was better than the Tucker bill, which the committee now has under consideration, but that he opposed the Ford bill as a proposal sale of the nation's territory.

She Was Weak, Thin and Nervous

How She Took On 15 Pounds Regained Her Strength and Lost All Nervousness After Taking McCoy's Cod Liver Oil Tablets.

The greatest strength-giver and producer of good healthy flesh is Cod Liver Oil. It's full of vitamins. But it's nasty stuff—all smells and hard to take and usually spoils the stomach.

Thank goodness we don't have to take it from the bottle any more, for now Lige's and all other girls are getting their strength back by taking McCoy's Cod Liver Oil Tablets, sugar-coated and as easy to take as candy, so that you can get the real cod liver oil in a convenient form and get just the same results as with the horrible smelling liquid.

Men and women, weak, thin and nervous, are urged to put on strength and get back their health and strength with these wonderful tablets.

One woman gained 15 pounds in five weeks and that's some, isn't it? Only 50 cents for the oil tablets, and if they don't put five pounds of flesh on any thin person in three weeks, why, money back and no quibbling about it, either.

PASSOVER WILL BEGIN TONIGHT WORLD OVER

Preparations for the Eight-Day Jewish Holiday Have Been Going on for Weeks

Though when the sun dips below the horizon, the solemn services of Passover, marking the anniversary of Israel's redemption from Egyptian bondage, will begin throughout the world.

Preparations for the eight-day holiday known as "the Feast of the Unleavened Bread" have been going on for weeks in synagogues and in Jewish homes universally.

Breakfast and dinner tonight will be observed as "reded" nights, when, as in the case with the string-always welcome.

At the "Seder," the symbols of faith are bitter herbs, matzo, eggs, and nuts, and a glass of wine, the matzo being a symbol of the Jewish people's suffering and the eggs a symbol of the Jewish people's hope.

Passover is rich in symbols and ceremonies. The "Haggadah," a part of the observance of the Jews from London to Moscow, Prague and across the world, is a story of the Jewish people's suffering and the eggs a symbol of the Jewish people's hope.

Calmly Goes to Death In Chair Just For "Keeping Secret"

Oswego, N. Y., April 18.—In a state of calm when taking his seat in the electric chair in Sing Sing Prison, that he was innocent of the murder of Mrs. Jennie Berkel, Edwin Norlin paid the executioner's death penalty for the crime of which he was convicted in the Bronx.

Norlin, 40, was in the chair with him and as the guillotine was about to strap him into the chair, he turned to Warden Lewis and asked:

"May I say something?"

"Certainly," said the Warden.

"I'd like to announce that just before I came here, I was told that I was being put to death. My only crime was in keeping a secret."

Watching up with a Vision—

Watch this community of ours!

Ten years ago the men in the Edison Light whose business it is to see beyond the horizon of today into tomorrow had a vision.

Like most practical visions, it was regarded as visionary. Some even ventured to call it preposterous.

"How can Boston possibly need 500,000 new horsepower, ten new turbines, and a generating station to cost millions of dollars?" they asked. "When Boston doesn't even use all the electricity Edison Light can make now? And what's more, why build at Weymouth?"

The vision was translated into blueprints. On the margins men wrote notes of new means of producing electricity, new machines, new economies in building which struck some of the critics as alarmingly new-fangled.

That was in 1913.

WATCH Weymouth Station rise; it is one measure of the growth of Greater Boston. A city like ours never quite overtakes its visions.

Now the Weymouth Station is a live project. The "vision" is becoming a stupendous fact of concrete, brick, steel and stone as fast as expert engineers can work. New channels in Fore River, new fields of made ground reclaimed from the sea, caissons sunk, piers and steelwork rising, new machinery being made—all the excitement of a race against time is being experienced at Weymouth, where the builders are catching up to the vision.

For already Greater Boston is pressing the capacity of Edison Light. Every few weeks during the dark months there has come a new record day. The colossal force that is the progress of our community is hungry for the electric light and power and fuel that drives it irresistibly forward.

BETTOR'S SHIFT TO GREB AS RING RIVALS FINISH TRAINING

LARGE OFFERS TO PURCHASE FIRPO

NORFOLK IS TO RELY ON GREB

By JACK CONWAY
Harry Greb, world's middle-weight champion, and Kid Norfolk of New York were both billed to workout at a local gym today. The rival fighters both declare they are in perfect condition for their ten-round battle at the Faneuil A. C.'s show at Mechanics Building tomorrow night.

There was a shift in the betting today. Greb being made a 10 to 1 favorite. Earlier in the week the wagering was at even money.

Those gentlemen who are backing Greb will win. For the time being, the amazing speed and skill will offset Norfolk's heavy punching power.

As it is a "house" bout, the show should go on with a few more rounds. There is great interest in this bout and it is expected that Mechanics Building will be jammed to capacity when the rivals enter the ring on the evening of the holiday.

Greb will receive a guarantee of $5000 and a privilege of 40 per cent of the gate receipts. Norfolk will get $5000 and the privilege of 40 per cent of the receipts while he won't be paid any more money.

By SID MERCER
Louis Angel Firpo is a boxer of mystery. The American representative, Billy McKenney, has announced that Firpo would sail from Buenos Aires for New York next week.

Last night Firpo reiterated his recent statement that he was through with the ring and added that he was not interested in a Luis Firpo fresh offer from James J. Johnston.

On top of this comes the information that Jules Hirsch, an agent of Tex Rickard, landed in Buenos Aires two days ago bearing a package of Tex's favorite weapons with which he mesmerized Firpo and has him on the point of joining with Harry Wills on an assault on Dempsey's title.

McKenney believes that Firpo is serious about quitting the ring, but he is sure to be worrying the promoters who want him in their business.

The "Wild Bull" does not respond as readily to the lure of the dollar as he once did.

Johnston's latest offer is a guarantee of $250,000 with a privilege of taking twenty-five per cent of the gross receipts for fighting Wills.

It is difficult to see how anybody but Rickard can make the most of this.

Richard returns to the city from Portland next week and then we may expect to get a definite announcement from the Argentine giant that he is coming back.

One thing that probably will hasten Firpo's departure from Buenos Aires is the criticism of his fight with Farmer Lodge, Elmo Spilla and Al Heich by the Municipal Boxing Commission, which expects one of the members of the New York State Athletic Commission to be sent to the Argentine to look into the matter.

Meanwhile, McKenney, Jimmy Johnston, has indicated that Manager Charles Johnson to put Johnny Dan Johnson in the ring against Firpo at the Polo Grounds, scheduled for late in May.

Dundee has started his training and expects to defend his junior lightweight title against Eddie Kelly Wagner or Carl Dunbar. Johnson will back the number with a junior welterweight and expects to draw big with it. Dundee will not defend his featherweight title until mid-June.

An Amusing Bit of Australian Reasoning

An Australian paper, which does not agree with the United States Lawn Tennis Association regarding players writing for newspapers, says regarding the recent explanation of Vincent Richards:

"One wonders whether the ruling made is a suggestion that such a player shall render a player liable to be declared a professional lawn tennis player. If he gets a wife by reason of his fame as a player, he should suffer the same penalty as if he earns money by writing because he is a famous player. Writing is not a great offense than running away with a young lady."

EAGLE NINE S READY FOR VERMONT
Boston College will have its first hard test of the baseball season tomorrow at the Heriot with the University of Vermont.

The Vermonters have been making all opposition in their southern trip and have an even chance of winning from the veteran club.

Newton, who has already pitched one no-hit, seven game against the University of Maryland, will start for the Eagles, with Ward catching.

There are but few changes in the lineup. The only one is that graduation was at first base, and Burns has more than filled the gap.

The game should be a hard one to judge from the 22 to 9 run from Northampton. This gives them an advantage over the Eagles.

PUTTING THE "PAY" IN PATRIOTISM

The American Olympic Fund is on the ragged edge—in sport terms—it's a flop.

Money to finance Our Boys for their trip abroad and their upkeep is coming in more slowly than the well-known cold moles.

The honor of Uncle Sam is at stake and it is time the Minute Men got busy and put the fund over the top.

The so-called war-ridden and bankrupt countries of Europe are not lacking in enthusiasm and they are saying it with cash, but rich Uncle Sam has to beg backing for the boys who will defend the title claims of U. S. A. on track and field.

Show our little band of athletes that we are with them—send them away in style—give them something more than three cheers—and then watch them come through.

The Olympic committee has sent out an S. O. S., but nothing has come of it. Now the patriotism of the people is being appealed to.

If America is to triumph in the great world classic, our athletes must be taken care of as well, if not better, than their rivals from other countries.

It is up to every sports lover to do his or her bit and the bigger the bit the better the bit.

NORTHEASTERN KOTSONAROS TRACK MEN WINTER AT ARE BUSY GRAND

George Kotsonaros defeated Prince Gohar in the final heat at the Grand Open House last night with a double arm scissors in 44 minutes of fast and furious wrestling.

Gohar showed a world of strength in the end scene and Kotsonaros pinned his shoulder to the mat.

The main bout was overshadowed with a fine card of four preliminary bouts. In the curtain raiser Tommy Record went to a 30 minute draw with Nick Kavaras.

In the second bout Savar Toulous defeated John Sirras in 15 minutes with a body scissors and double wrist lock.

Harry Stratakis easily won from Joe Fargas in 15 minutes, 30 seconds with body scissors and wrist lock. The semifinal bout was one of the most witnessed this year between Jimmy London and Count Nick Zarantini, in which London won in 87 minutes with a series of reverse headlocks.

Trade Brisk Between Irish Free State and America

Trade in Irish goods between the new Irish Free State and the United States, officials of the U. S. Department of Commerce predict that profitable relations between Irish and American merchants will grow steadily during the next few years.

Ireland sold $28,800,000 worth of goods to the United States during 1922, the official agency shows. In return, the United States shipped to Ireland merchandise valued at $17,500,000, leaving a balance of $11,300,000 in Ireland's favor.

CHILD CLINICS AT UPHAM'S CORNER

Community Health Association Branch Open Mondays and Thursdays

This is the birthplace of a series of articles which is a sequel to this newspaper's investigation of medical quackery in Greater Boston.

If you are not acquainted with reputable physicians and wish to make use of inferior treatment, you will find this series of articles very helpful in guiding you to the right doctor.

Another active health agency for children under 14 years is the Upham's Corner Branch of the Community Health Association at No. 18 Dudley street.

Only graduate, registered nurses and medical men high in their profession conduct the clinics here, thus insuring the children protection against quack doctors.

In this branch of the Community Health Association three distinct clinics are held—Well-Baby, Wild Child and Posture.

Well-Baby clinic. Here children are not cured here, but the doctor runs through another branch of the service, at the time to educate children in their homes. Once their health is restored to normal, they may join the Health Club.

Wild Child clinic. Here children are not cured here, but the doctor runs through another branch of the service, at the time to educate children in their homes. Once their health is restored to normal, they may join the Health Club.

Posture clinic. Here children are not cured here, but the doctor runs through another branch of the service, at the time to educate children in their homes. Once their health is restored to normal, they may join the Health Club.

When a child is first registered at either of the clinics for children under six, it is examined by the attending physician, a feeding chart is prescribed, and it is referred, if necessary to a hospital or private physician for the correction of any physical defects, such as the removal of adenoids or tonsils.

WEIGHED WEEKLY. Babies and small children are weighed from week to week, and their progress charted as they grow.

Children from two to five are taught healthy habits, such as brushing their teeth, washing their faces and hands, etc. A special study is made of stubborn or refractory children.

The work of the posture clinic is the most interesting of all. Children are taught to stand, sit, walk, and run in a healthy manner, and to avoid the harmful effects of poor posture.

CAMERA STUDIES

How Upham's Corner Branch of Community Health Association records progress in correcting posture of children. A camera tracing of each child is taken on admission. Then the child is given exercises or other treatment to restore the incorrect posture to normal. The children themselves can see by each successive tracing, as in upper and lower photos, what improvement they are making and prices are awarded for hard work, and best results.

more easily and quickly corrected are his defects.

The children work hard to see from their silhouettes, which are mounted on a large white cardboard chart in the classroom, what an improvement they make from the time of the first tracing. Good study prizes are awarded for hard work and best results, which creates interest and rivalry.

These clinics are in charge of a physician, Miss Margaret Colman, a district supervisor, and Miss Lilian Klapsa, instructor.

522 ON PAROLE SENT BACK TO JAIL IN YEAR

2,415 Released by the Pardon Board, and Only 16 Committed Serious Offenses

In its annual report issued today to the year ending September 30 last, the State Board of Pardon shows that out of 2,415 inmates released on parole last year were re-arrested to prison because of further minor offenses.

Noting as the advisory board of pardon has considered 58 applications for pardon and reported on such cases to the Governor.

Considering that the board has recommended 2,415 from the five institutions under its jurisdiction, "the report shows," said that only 16 of these received for the commission of serious crime, 12 of them to the Massachusetts Reformatory. It is evident that the board has exercised discretion with much care and discretion.

Victor Nelson, the man paroled from State prison, who was convicted of assault in New York State, was released after the completion of the period covered by the report.

LABOR MINISTRY IN WEST AUSTRALIA

Perth, West Australia, April 15.—Philip Collier, leader of the Parliamentary Labor party, has formed a Labor Ministry in Western Australia, to succeed the government of Sir James Mitchell, which was defeated in the recent general election.

HOW TO KEEP WELL

By Dr. F. X. MAHONEY, Boston Health Commissioner.

Is there someone with a "bad cold" in your office or workshop? If they spit on the floor or in the sink?

If they do, you have a good reason to wear up bacteria that will give YOU a chronic "bad cold" when your resistance is lowered by the cold. Consumption is still with us. It still carries off its yearly quota. Carelessness and consumption are twin companions; they work together and when consumption is coming on carelessness steps in and saves the day.

Consumption is by no means fatal when recognized and treated in its earlier stages. But when the "cougher" neglects his own condition, uses the same dishes as the rest of the family and spits promiscuously, he not only writes his own death warrant, but signs up his intimate friends and those who are exposed to his bacteria.

The patient suffering from consumption has an enormous number of bacilli in his lungs and the system coughed up by him contains great numbers of them. When this sputum is allowed to dry in the room, it may become powdered and be blown about in the air. A person breathing this air may take the germs into his lungs and infect them.

If you are suffering from consumption, avoid the following list of "Don'ts." It means life insurance for the rest of the family.

Nightstick Rifles' Latest Device to Curb Crime

New York, April 18 (AP)—The latest device to curb crime waves and enable the patrolman to "get his man" has been invented by a New York gunsmith.

It is a combination of the nightstick and revolver, permitting a rifle like adjustment in three seconds.

The new device provides for a groove in one end of the nightstick, and a flange on the end of the revolver. The flange slips into the groove and locks and thus the nightstick becomes in effect the stock of the rifle.

For the first time in its career it has been used for many abnormal conditions and perhaps to fulfill the desire of the police to have a weapon which is simple and their relief can therefore only be determined by a personal examination.

Enjoy Patriots' Day With an INSPECTED-INSURED USED CAR

The finest used cars in Boston are listed below. Each car has been examined by the Boston American's expert automobile mechanics and condition is as represented.

Don't make your family suffer the inconveniences of stuffy crowded trains. Buy them an automobile. Perhaps you cannot afford a new car, but you can afford a used car if it carries the Boston American Inspected-Insured blue certificate on the windshield. Enjoy Patriots' Day with one of the fine used cars listed below and every other day will be a holiday for you, too.

New used car bargain offerings appear on this page every Monday, Wednesday and Friday.
